

Olin Fleischer Scholars Program

Develop your passion, pursue your dreams, and start your journey on the road to success

July 22 – July 28, 2018

Olin Business School at Washington University in St. Louis

Free for qualifying participants

How would you like to learn about business and entrepreneurship from one of the top business schools in the country? The Olin Fleischer Scholars Program provides a unique, week-long educational experience for high school students entering your sophomore, junior, or senior year. This program is designed to help students with limited financial resources, those from underrepresented populations, and first-generation college students prepare for college and career planning.

Discover the importance of a college degree

A college education can make a significant impact on your future career success and earning potential. While on campus, you'll work directly with Olin Business School faculty, students, alumni, and area business leaders to gain hands-on experience and essential leadership skills in a collaborative environment. You'll learn about various business education degree programs and how they can prepare you for success in any organization, or as you forge your own entrepreneurial path.

Olin Fleischer Scholars Program

Program highlights

- Learn about academic and career opportunities.
- Visit St. Louis area companies and interact with company executives.
- Study with world-renowned business school faculty.
- Utilize a variety of resources at a top research institution.
- Experience campus living at Washington University with other area high school students.

Who is eligible for the Olin Fleischer Scholars Program?

This need-based program opens up a world of opportunity to high school students by exposing you to the importance of a college education in achieving business and entrepreneurship success. The Olin Fleischer Scholars Program is open to:

- Students with limited financial resources
- Students from underrepresented populations
- First-generation college students with significant financial need

How do I apply?

Applications are accepted beginning February. You are required to submit the following in order to apply for the program:

- Olin Fleischer Scholars Program application
- An official stamped, signed high school transcript provided by your guidance office
- Two letters of recommendation
 - One must be from a high school teacher or administrator
 - Letters must be submitted directly by the recommenders

Download your application materials at:

<https://olinwustl.campusgroups.com/bsba/olin-fleischer-scholars/>

Applications will be accepted beginning February 2, with an application deadline of March 9.

An application to Washington University in St. Louis is not required and admission is not guaranteed.

Learn more!

For questions or application information, please contact:
Paige LaRose

Assistant Dean of Olin Undergraduate Programs
OLIN-FSP@email.wustl.edu or 314-935-6315